Sarah Bernhardt's Carriage Stopped
By a Fanatical Mob at Odessa.

Outrages in County Clare—Resistance to Rents.

Emperor William's Condition Favorable.

Hannibal Hamlin at Paris.

LONDON, November 28.—Lefroy's solicitor considers him a victim of the homicidal mania.

DUBLIN, November 28.—A correspondent says that in County Clare alone seven houses were fired into last week, of which outrages no reports were published. Resistance to the payment of rent is not in the least abated, but is rather increased.

BERLIN, November 28.—The Emperor's condition is most favorable.

LONDON, November 28.—The Home from Baltimore, Lord Gough from Philadelphia, and the Victoria from Boston have arrived out.

About forty persons injured in the late gale are being treated in the London hospitals. It is feared some six cases will prove fatal. Fifty barges were sunk in the Thames. Extensive floods are reported in the upper Thames valley.

A Cork correspondent says: A party of armed men recently entered the house of a woman named Henane, near Listowel, County Kerry, for the purpose of shooting her, because she had given information to the police. The children threw themselves upon their mother in terror, and one of them received a charge of shot in the legs. The party then left the house, after making the mother swear, under threats of death, not to divulge the occurrence. Six persons have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the outrage.

Hannibal Hamlin, the new United States Minister to Spain, has arrived at Paris, accompanied by a daughter of Secretary Blaine.

Messier, the artist, gave a soiree in honor of the American photographer who invented the process by which photographs can be taken of animals in swiftest motion.

A Paris correspondent says that Firm has accepted the Government of Algeria on terms which reduce it to a mere prefect.

A dispatch from Odessa says: The Jew-Baiting mob stoned Sarah Bernhardt's carriage as she was driving home from the theater, on the ground that she is of Jewish descent. They also stoned her hotel and stopped the performance at the theater.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 28.—Lard, prime Western, dull at 57s. 6d. Cheese, American choice, steady at 63s. for Sept; 55s. for summer. Rosin, common, dull at 6s. 6d.; Rosin, common London, firmer at 6s. 3d. Turpentine, spirits, London, firmer at 42s. Receipts of wheat for the week—Atlantic ports, 65,000 quarters; Pacific, 21,000; other sources, 9,000. Corn, 35,000.

Horrible Crime.
ABERDEEN, Miss., November 28.—On Saturday last four men, with a wagon, passed through here, stating that they were from near the Alabama line and going to Arkansas. They camped three miles west of here, and Sunday evening persons passing by found them lying on mattresses and covered with quilts, each with his head split open, as though with an axe. There was no visible evidence of robbery.

Furnace Burned.
CINCINNATI, November 28.—The Paulding iron furnace, at Cecil, Paulding county, Ohio, burned yesterday morning. Total loss, $60,000. The furnace was owned by Graff, Bennett & Co., of Pittsburgh. Fifty men were thrown out of employment.

A Youngtown, Ohio, special says: Sixty Bros' grist mill was completely destroyed by fire yesterday; also Chas. Hikes' residence adjoining. Loss on the mill, $50,000; residence, $500.

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, November 28.—For the Tennessee and Ohio valley, easterly to southerly winds, with slight rise in the temperature and a stationary or falling barometer with partly cloudy weather and local rains in the western portion. For the Missouri valley, partly cloudy weather, with slight snow or rain in the northern portion, and southerly to westerly winds with slight changes in the temperature, and falling followed by a rising barometer.

Return of S. S. Cox.
NEW YORK, November 28.—The Republic has arrived from Liverpool. Hon. S. S. Cox is a passenger, and a number of his political friends have gone down the bay to meet him.

Coal Shipment.
PITTSBURGH, November 28.—The coal shipped on the late rise amounted to 10,855,000 bushels, of which 3,889,000 bushels were for Cincinnati, 6,890 bushels were for Louisville, and 100,000 for Madison.

WALL STREET.

Conflicting Rumors as to Trunk Line Difficulties.

A Bullish Feeling and Prices Firm.

Demand for Unlisted Securities.

NEW YORK, November 28.—In Wall street the rumors concerning trunk line difficulties are conflicting as usual, as is also the reports about the government purchase of bonds. At the opening a bullish feeling prevailed, and prices were firm. Sage predicts a higher market. A traffic agreement has been made between the Erie and Buffalo, Pittsburgh & Western. There is a better demand for unlisted securities, State bonds and second class railroad securities.

11 A.M.—The stock market opened firm and generally 1 to 2 higher, the latter for Memphis & Charleston. General speculation was quite firm, and an advance was recorded ranging from 1 to 1 1/2, the latter for Louisville & Nashville. Other shares prominent in the improvement were St. Paul, Denver & Rio Grande, Lake Shore, Texas Pacific, St. Paul, Minnesota & Manitoba, and Western Union. Wheat is fairly active, but 1 to 1/2 lower.

GUITEAU'S SHOW.

Mrs. Scoville, His Sister, on the Stand.

Another Witness Makes the Assassination Cranky.

The Head Crank Gets in a Few Words.

WASHINGTON, November 28.—The Criminal Court room was densely crowded this morning, and at ten o'clock Mrs. Scoville resumed her testimony. She described Guiteau's actions during his visit to her in '76, and said she was then convinced that he was insane and should be put in an asylum. Frequent objections were raised by the counsel for the prosecution to the character of the questions proposed by Scoville, and a continuous discussion ensued between the counsel upon the admissibility of certain evidence. At this time some irritability was manifested.

"The witness does not understand the rules of evidence, gentlemen," said Scoville.

"Yes, but you are supposed to," was the reply.

Witness, when asked if she had ever before been upon the witness stand, replied with some emphasis, "No, and I'm not a lawyer either."

Mrs. Scoville's examination was concluded and the cross-examination was postponed to allow George D. Burroughs, of Chicago, to testify, as he desired to leave the city. This witness boarded with Scoville at the time of Guiteau's visit in '76, and made up his mind that the prisoner was either a fool or crazy. He was satisfied that Guiteau was unsettled in intellect.

There was a brief interval before the next witness appeared, and Guiteau took advantage of the opportunity and broke out with, "I desire to tell all these crank newspaper men that I appear here as my own counsel; that is my answer to all silly stuff they have been delivering themselves of for some days past. Some of these newspaper men have gone crazy. I appear here in part as my own counsel, as I have a right to do under the law and constitution of America." No effort was made to check Guiteau, and no notice whatever of the interruption was taken by the court.

River Telegrams.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 28.—River falling slowly, with 10 feet 1 inch in the canal and 7 feet 1 inch in the chute on the falls. Weather, partly cloudy and pleasant. Departed—Chas. Fulton to New Orleans; Dick Fulton to Belmont; Transit, John Penny, Baltic Acorn, N. J. Bigley and J. A. Blackmore, with tons of coal, arrived from Pittsburgh. The Cons Millar is still here. She will probably have her bursted supply repaired and leave this afternoon for Memphis.

EVANSVILLE, November 28.—Arrived: Dora Cabler, from Cannelton, at 12:30 p.m. Departed: Gray Eagle, for Louisville, at 10:20 a.m. The weather is beautifully clear and pleasant; wind southeast and strong; mercury 35 to 53 degrees; river 19 feet and stationary.

A Thanksgiving Murder.
CINCINNATI, November 28.—James Tillitt died this morning at the hospital from a fractured skull. He was drunk on Thanksgiving night when Louis Hauke, his friend, tried to induce him to go home. Tillitt refused and struck Hauke a stunning blow on the chin; Hauke was about to return the blow when Tillitt drew a knife; Hauke then took a bowlder and threw it at Tillitt with such force as to crush his skull. Hauke immediately gave himself up.

THE DEVIL'S DOG

Drags a Colored Preacher from the Pulpit.

A Panic-Stricken Congregation and the Jumps they Made.

ABOUT 4 o'clock yesterday evening a splendid bulldog, pure white, bounded into the back door of Mount Olivet Chapel, on the corner of Georgia and Orleans streets, where a couple of hundred colored people were attending religious services and ran half way down the aisle without noticing any one. Then, suddenly turning, the animal increased his speed and sprang into the pulpit, from which it dragged a visiting minister, off the bench, down the steps and into the amen corner. Terror seized upon the hearts of the congregation, who ran screaming out of the doors and jumped from the windows, leaving the unfortunate preacher to the mercy of the ferocious brute. One man, Armstrong Perkins, a steward in the church, was braver than the rest, and snatching a heavy walking-stick, beat out the dog's brains. The brothers and sisters are much disturbed over the affair. Several of those who jumped from the windows were cut by broken glass lying around loose.

Another sensation took place later in the evening at Avery Chapel, a colored church which stands on stilts over the bayou at the corner of Gayoso and Hernando streets, and is hourly danger of falling. During services a bench occupied by a heavy brother broke in two with a crash, and at the same moment an exuberant sister kicked over the coal scuttle. There were about five hundred people in the church, who became panic-stricken, and a mad rush was made. Out of the windows, through glass and wooden shutters went the flying sinners, falling pell mell into the bayou below. Benches were demolished, and Sunday-go-to-meetin' clothes were torn into shreds. The scene was a horrible one. Several persons sustained severe contusions, and it is reported that one woman was so crushed that she will not live. Her name could not be learned.

Cotton.
The market opened this forenoon with a good demand and firm feeling. Sales Saturday were 1700 bales; to exporters, 550; to spinners, 1150; closing firm at 10 higher than the day before, when all grades fell off below quotations previously ruling.

Sales the past week sum up 10,800 bales; to exporters, 6150; to spinners, 4650; closing firm at prices the same as a week ago, as follows: Low ordinary, 71c; ordinary, 9c; good ordinary, 10c; low middling, 11c; middling, 11c; good middling, 11c; middling fair, 12c; stains and off colors 1c lower.

The total receipts of cotton at all U. S. ports since the first of September have been 2,669,507 bales being 277,811 less than last year, also 111,169 less than the year before at the same date. Total foreign exports this season 886,356 bales against 1,187,209 and 1,162,923. Total stock is 906,404 against 916,838 and 669,419 last year and the year before at the same time.

Our cotton shipment from September 1st to Friday last aggregated 105,296 bales. Of these steamers have carried north 26,135 bales, and 21,938 more than last year at the same date. L. & N. Railway, 45,633 bales, and 20,706 more than last year; M. & C. Railway, 18,647 bales, and 9480 less than last year; M. & T. Railway, 13,325 bales, and 31,368 less than last season, and by river south 1385 bales, and 14,435 less than last year.

Cotton receipts by M. & C. Railway this season and up to Friday last were 33,634 bales, and 2744 more than last year to the same time; by the M. & T. Railway, 18,512 bales, and 999 bales more than last year; by the L. & N. Railway, 20,140 bales, and 6436 bales less than last year; M. & L. R. Railway, 18,902 bales, and 20,841 less than last year; M. & P. Railway, 5533 bales, and 430 bales less than last year. By river 56,744 bales, and 20,324 bales more than last year. The total receipts to Friday were 172,975 bales, 2920 less than last season.

SENATORS SMITH AND MORGAN.

"Not a True Bill" Returned by The Grand Jury in Each Case.

Nashville American, 27.

In presenting their final report to Judge Quarles yesterday, the grand jury returned the bills charging Senator I. T. Smith and Speaker Morgan with bribery. On each bill of the bills was indorsed "Not a true bill—O. N. Ordway, foreman." This, of course, settles the bribery cases as far as the present term of the Criminal Court is concerned, but it is rumored that the effort will be renewed in January to indict Senators Barrett, Smith and Morgan.

Death of an Aged Physician.
Special to the Vicksburg Herald.

WOODVILLE, MISS., November 25.—Dr. David Holt died to-day, aged 83. He was a veteran of the war of 1812, and for sixty-one years was a physician in this county.

To the Pacific.
Special to Little Rock Gazette.

ST. LOUIS, November 25.—W. M. Hoxie, general manager of the Iron Mountain, International & Great Northern and Texas & Pacific railroads, accompanied by Seth Link, general freight agent; Francis Chandler, general passenger agent, and several other officials, left here to-day for El Paso and Laredo, Texas, where they will make preliminary arrangements for the first stage, running trains from St. Louis to San Francisco via the Southern Pacific from El Paso, and in the other case running trains to the Mexican border at Laredo. It is expected through cars will be run from St. Louis to San Francisco, and that the Texas & Pacific will be completed, and in operation by January first, and the International & Great Northern will reach Laredo by the middle of December. The San Francisco route will be called the Triple Line, and will be formed of the Iron Mountain, Texas & Pacific and Southern Pacific.

Free Notice.
Somerville Falcon.

The Evening Sentinel, a Republican daily recently issued in Memphis, has gone the way of all flesh and the way of the majority of Republican papers that have thrived and blossomed on Southern soil. It bloomed luxuriously in the sunlight of its new existence, but has gone to the shades of the circling woodbine. The South is not yet a profitable field for Republicanism, and is not likely to be soon. The delight of the Republican press has generally been to represent the South as barbarous and to discount upon the ignorance and illiteracy of the Southern people. Whatever truth may be in these representations, the Southern people are not yet so low as to link the hand that smites them, and can do without the mission work of these journals.

The Skating Rink.
This institution continues to attract the lovers of exercise, and many graceful feats performed are calculated to lend interest to the entertainment. Mr. Levy, the manager, does his best to make the resort worthy of the liberal patronage bestowed. The rink is one of the leading places of amusement at present.

Crop Blighted.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 28.—The promising top crop of cotton in this State was blighted by the hard freeze of Friday last.

Governor Stanford, of California, has returned from France with his own portrait painted by Meissner, his wife's painted by Bonnat, and his son's by Duran.

Jem Mace, the pugilist, it is reported, has been sued for breach of promise by a barmaid of Melbourne, Australia.

The Edgefield (S. C.) Advertiser says that Miss Arthur, the President's sister, was once a governess at Curryton, S. C.

The New Trousers for Ladies.
New York Star.

Take a pair of overalls; sew a gore-shaped piece between the two inside seams of the two legs in front; sew a plain wide piece from one outside seam to the other at the back, and there you will have a perfect pattern of the new trousers for ladies. Of course any amount of overdress, p-niers, and furbelows can be put over this design at the back, by way of ornament. The bottom of the legs and the added pieces should be trimmed with the same ruffling all around. Now, if this design be cut in silk or satin, it is clear that the two legs of it will show very little, unless the wearer be walking, in which case the unusual freedom and ease of her movements will betray the trousers. As far as appearance goes, no lady can be shocked by the difference between the trouser-dress and an ordinary dress at the back, and the front gore-piece carries out the resemblance to an ordinary costume when the wearer is sitting or standing. But when she walks about the trouser shape is confessed.

The advantages, one of comfort and the other of adornment, are claimed for this Parisian discovery. In the first place the movements of the ladies will be as unshackled as those of any man in an ulster. In the second place a dress may be worn much more tight in the skirt than at present without any of the present inconveniences. Ladies have recently been so pulled-back, tied-back and sheathed in tight skirts that they could scarcely walk. The trouser-skirt permits them to dress still more closely and yet leaves their limbs free. It is seldom that convenience and fashion are so admirably combined in an article of feminine apparel, and this consideration will induce many sensible ladies to give the new invention a fair trial.
